

Anna Ramsey

Worship Director

Anna serves as the Director of Worship at Charis. She began attending Charis when she was a student at Illinois State in 2015 and became a member in 2017. She began serving on the worship team soon after she began attending and took over the worship director position in 2019. She also works full-time as a music teacher. Anna is the proud #1 fan of the Charis softball team, enjoys spending time with her GC, and is always finding new crafting skills to acquire.
